Driving directions

If you are staying in New York City, plan for at least 1 hour 15 minutes driving time in a car.

The main entrance is on Route 134, near the intersection of Route 134 and the Taconic Parkway. Enter the driveway behind the IBM sign and drive to the security gate. If you are not a local IBM Research employee, press the buzzer at the gate. Park in front of the building and enter through the lobby doors.

If you will be arriving by bus from New York City, plan for at least 1 hour 45 minutes, since buses are not allowed to drive on parkways.

Please be prepared to show a government issued photo ID at the front desk. IBMers are required to show their IBM badge.

Trains

The Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA) operates the Metro North Railroad. Service includes commuter trains from Grand Central Terminal in New York City. Train stations near the Yorktown Heights facility are the Croton-Harmon station (on the Hudson Line) and White Plains station (on the Harlem Line). Taxi service is available at both station locations.

The train ride from Grand Central to Croton-Harmon ranges from 50 minutes (express train) to 70 minutes (local train). Metro North Schedules
